¹ See Section 166.041(4)(c), Florida Statutes.

In accordance with the provisions of controlling law, even notwithstanding the fact that an exemption noted above may apply, the City hereby publishes the following information:

1. Summary of the proposed ordinance (must include a statement of the public purpose, such as serving the public health, safety, morals, and welfare):

The proposed Ordinance 2024-429 clarifies a provision relating to existing nonconforming use in the City. The Ordinance clarifies the intent of the City Council when dealing with historic use within the City; thereby, satisfying a public purpose.

2. An estimate of the direct economic impact of the proposed ordinance on private, for-profit businesses in the City, if any:

- (a) An estimate of direct compliance costs that businesses may reasonably incur;
- (b) Any new charge or fee imposed by the proposed ordinance or for which businesses will be financially responsible; and
- (c) An estimate of the City's regulatory costs, including estimated revenues from any new charges or fees to cover such costs.

There are unlikely to be direct compliance costs associated with Ordinance 2024-429. No new charge or fee is imposed by the Ordinance for which businesses in the City should be financially responsible. There may be indirect compliance costs in the Ordinance. The City may incur increased, indeterminate regulatory costs associated with code compliance. Existing fees and costs may be incurred as a part of code compliance, the amounts are currently not determinable.

3. Good faith estimate of the number of businesses likely to be impacted by the proposed ordinance:

Ordinance 2024-429 does not impose any new charge or fee on existing businesses in the City. The City may incur increased, indeterminate costs associated with ensuring compliance. There are no new charges or fees that will be imposed on existing businesses by the proposed Ordinance to cover the City's costs of ensuring compliance.

4. Additional information the governing body deems useful (if any):

The proposed Ordinance 2024-429 is a generally applicable Ordinance that applies to all persons similarly situated (individuals as well as businesses) who have owned property since November 20, 1990, that is no a nonconforming use in the City. The estimated number of businesses likely to be impacted by the Ordinance cannot be quantified at this time.
